Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri Ramji Srivastava-learned counsel for the applicant, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

The case diary is available with the learned A.G.A. It was contended by the learned counsel that a sum of Rs. 50,000/- cannot be withdrawn from the A.T.M. It was further contended on behalf of the applicant that no inducement was given by the accused-applicant to Pankaj Sharma and that was not acted upon. As such, the offence is not made out against the accused-applicant. It was contended that there is no independent person at the time of such recovery.

Considering the facts and circumstance of the case in totality, it is a fit case for bail at this stage.
